KICKSTART General Operative

Job Placement Summary

Cunard Construction provides its clients with the highest possible levels of service, challenging conventional thinking and delivering exceptional quality.

Being a responsible business is not just about improving the built environment. Our duty is to bring positive and lasting social value on all of projects we undertake. We believe Cunard Construction's success is partly attributable to our commitment to social value as part of our core business activities. This means looking after and developing employees; treating supply chains fairly; using local people and firms who take a particular pride in what they are doing; Through our programmes we seek to develop, train and upskill the workforce, whilst transforming communities and improving social exclusion.

The position/s available have been created in line with the UK Government's Kickstart Scheme with the aim of getting young people who are unemployed and claiming universal credit get back into work. As part of this scheme, successful applicants will be provided with role-specific training.

The role is a fixed-term 6-month contract for 25 hours per week paid at National Minimum Wage. Candidates who excel in the role may be offered permanent positions with potential construction related career progression routes considered on completion of the contract.
